ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $1,217.53.

All criminal monetary penalties are due in full immedately. The defendant shall pay all criminal monetary penalties through the Clerk of Court. If the defendant cannot pay in full immediately, then the defendant shall make payments under the following minimum payment schedule: during incarceration, it is recommended that the defendant pay criminal monetary penalties through an installment plan in accordance with BOP Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program at the rate of 50% of the fund available to the defendant. If the defendant owes any criminal monetary penalties when released from incarceration, then the defendant shall make payments in monthly installments of at least $100.00, or no less than 10% of the defendant's gross earnings, whichever is greater, with payments to commence no later than 30 days after release of imprisonment. Until all criminal monetary penalties are paid in full, the defendant shall notify the court and this district's US Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, of any material changes in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the criminal monetary penalties.

- 2. The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit (FLU) of the U.S. Attorney's Office with the access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with FLU.
- 3. The defendant shall be prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the United States Probation Office so long as there is a balance on the Court-imposed financial obligation.
- 4. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.
- 5. The defendant shall file all correct tax returns and forms required by the income tax laws of the United States, pay any taxes owed and, as requested by the United States Probation Office, provide copies of all filed tax forms.
